

GCU Proctor Agreement Form

Thank you for agreeing to proctor exams for Great Commission University students. Please review the information below, sign and return via email to your instructor.

RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE PROCTOR

1. Ensure the proctor does not have a personal relationship with the test taker.
2. Provide an appropriate, secure location free from distractions.
3. Be able to observe the student during the entire exam administration.
4. Ensure the availability of a good computer with rapid internet access if required.
5. Receive exam information, including the exam or password, and keep them confidential until the student is present and ready to begin the test.
6. Check the student's picture ID (student ID, Driver's License, etc.).
7. Maintain time and date limits as identified by the instructor.
8. See that the student does not access any materials, including cell phones, except as authorized by the instructor.
9. If it is a computer-based exam, see that the student does not visit any websites after opening the exam.
10. See that the student does not communicate with any person other than the proctor during the test.
